that no one is paying for the work. The PIA court said, well, AGO cited a recent authority granted by the legislature to fight back against Trump's redactions against MD. That's why this is ok.

But that does not answer, and indeed draws attention to, MD AGO taking private attorneys to file an amicus brief in support of the donor's agenda "to Hold Fossil Fuel Companies Accountable for Climate Change", on behalf of Baltimore's tort campaign against other private parties targeted by the donor. That's *not* doing what the legislature authorized/the excuse-authority that AGO and the court invoked to justify the relationship.

SAAGs (Segal, at minimum and, given the purported, public nuisance "confidentiality agreement", likely all three of them) are in fact working to advance the donor's agenda by using AGO against the same private parties he has targeted with contributions, rhetorically, and otherwise. (other SAAG offices on brief w MD are CT, NY, OR, WA plus CA, RI, VT, NJ
